

A Memoir of Memoir of William Hindman: A Paper Read Before the Maryland Historical Society, March Society, March (Classic Reprint)

Gentlemen of the Maryland Historical Society: A FEW prefatory words, respecting the time and circumstances of the preparation of the paper about to be read, will not be out of place, as they will serve to explain certain expressions. In the year 1876 I was invited by the Committee for the historical Centennial commemoration of our independency, through one of your own body, Dr. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)
