Excerpt from Trade Union Conditions in Hungary: Documents Presented by the Mission of Inquiry of the International Labour Office (August-September 1920) On May 1, 1920, a telegram was received by the International Labour Office from Count Teleki, Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of Hungary, as follows: The Hungarian Government learns from a reliable source that certain persons are endeavouring to prejudice public opinion abroad against the present Government of Hungary. In order once and for all to refute these calumnies and to put our case in its true light, the Hungarian Government requests the International Labour Office to send to Hungary, as soon as possible, a Delegation composed of as many members as possible, who will be able to enter into direct relations with the leaders of the Hungarian workers and with the Hungarian Government, and to form a just estimate of the position. The Delegates will be able by personal experience to satisfy themselves of the gross inaccuracy of the biased rumours current regarding the so-called White Terror and the persecution of the workers. Count Teleki, Minister for Foreign Affairs in Hungary. In reply, the Director of the International Labour Office informed the Government of Hungary that the institution of so important a Mission must be left to the decision of the Governing Body of the Office, which was to meet in Genoa on June 8.
