Not illustrated. 1916 Excerpt: ...Catholics not only assumed official status, but employed it politically, bringing their followers into frequent collisions with the non-Christians. To end these troubles Dr. Morrison recently recommended the Chinese Government to withdraw the rank conferred on Roman Catholics. 25. Remarkable Korean Proclamation Against Christianity. Through the kindness of Mr. Holcombe, Secretary of the United States Legation, I succeeded in obtaining a copy of a Korean proclamation on Christian Missions, based on the attitude of the Chinese Government, whose example Korea wished to follow. This had been published about 1864, and was found by the Americans when taking some Korean ports in 1874. The proclamation declared:--1. That God was to be served by virtue and not by the begging of favours and forgiveness of sins. 2. That God was a Spirit, but Jesus Christ was a man among men; how therefore could He be God? 3. That priests affirmed that the soul was more important than the body. As they are the teachers of mens souls, they must be obeyed rather than the parents and teachers of mens bodies. 4. That ancestral rites, which existed for the purpose of showing gratitude to ancestors and keeping them in memory, were forbidden by the foreign priests. 5. That the Pope claimed supreme obedience over and above that given to rulers; he was therefore like a robber or rebel disturbing the peace of nations. 6. That God had created mankind male and female, but the priests exhorted celibacy, paid no proper reverence to prince and father, nor due regard to husband and wife. 7. That the teachings about the Holy Virgin, spiritual fathers, baptism, confirmation, and salvation were lies to deceive the people. 8. That since Jesus died miserably, Christians must be drunk or mad to say they f...
