

War and Revolution in Catalonia, 1936-1939 (Historical Materialism Book)

In War and Revolution in Catalonia, 1936-1939, Pelai Pages i Blanch analyses the political and military evolution of the events in Catalonia during the Spanish Civil War: the street battles that defeated the military rebellion; the social revolution that pervaded all levels of Catalonias politics, economy, and culture; the gradual erosion of workers power, culminating in the May Events; and Catalonias eventual fall to Francos forces. Pages i Blanch demonstrates the extent to which the war was lost when the Republican leaders, in order to unify the left against Franco and fascism, turned their backs on the social revolution. This translation of Pages i Blanchs landmark study is the first full-length monograph in English to focus on Catalonias experience during the war
