

East River Column: Hong Kong Guerrillas in the Second World War and After (Royal Asiatic Society Hong Kong Studies Series)

Hong Kongs story in the Second World War has been predominantly told as a story of the British forces and their defeat on Christmas Day 1941. But there is another story: the Chinese guerrilla forces who harassed the Japanese throughout the occupation played a crucial part in the escapes from Hong Kongs prisoner of war camps and in rescuing Allied airmen. This neglected part of Hong Kongs war is Chan Sui-jeungs topic in this pioneering book informed by his many contacts with participants in the guerrilla warfare.
