Not illustrated. 1885 Excerpt: ...some one in the Government service, these men are defrauded of their right to a lawful inquiry ordered by the Minister of Mines. Dr. QUICK.--Defrauded of the results of the inquiry. Mr. GAUNSON.--If the Minister wished to carry out the recommendation of the warden, his hands, he says, are tied because rent has been received. Mr. McLELLAN.--The warden made no recommendation. Mr. GAUNSON.--Yes, he did. Why are the papers not produced? Lt.-Col. SMITH.--Where are they? Mr. GAUNSON.--The papers have been asked for, and yet the Government decline to produce them. Such a thing ought not to be permitted for a single moment. Mr. McINTYRE.--Mr. Speaker, I desire your ruling on a question of order. A document was read by the Minister of Mines last night; and I wish to know whether it is not the duty of any honorable member who reads a document in this House, or quotes from a document, in the course of debate, to lay it upon the table? Lt.-Col. SMITH.--Three Ministers have read from the document in question. I know that on several occasions during your regime, Mr. Speaker--long may it continue--you have insisted upon me placing documents upon the table when I quoted from them, and you have insisted upon the same rule being observed by other members. Why should Ministers be exempt from the rule? The report of the warden, and the evidence taken before the warden, ought to be placed on the table. Dr. QUICK.--I think that, even as a matter of propriety, the Government should consent to place the documents upon the table. I submit, however, that we have a right to insist upon their production. Mr. SERVICE.--It was explained last night that the reason why the papers were not laid on the table was that, if they were once placed on the table, they would have to remain there. (&...
