

The Liberty of the Subject (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Liberty of the Subject
Originally wrote The Liberty of the Subject at the request of Lord Northcliffe for insertion in the Daily Mail. I did not intend to publish it in book form, but since its appearance in the columns of that newspaper its republication has been largely demanded. I take this opportunity of saying that the proofs of The Liberty of the Subject were read over by my father (the late Judge Bowen-Rowlands, K.C. (Recorder of Swansea), and, with the exception of my advocacy of the establishment of a Court of Criminal Appeal, he approved of the reforms suggested.
