

The Liberal View: A Series of Articles on Current Politics (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Liberal View: A Series of Articles on Current Politics

The year during which I have had the honour to be President of the Eighty Club, in 1903 and 1904, has been remarkable in events of gigantic political importance. The country has begun to realize the result of the South African War, both in that country and at home. In the Transvaal and the Orange Free State great difficulties have presented themselves, both in regard to the settlement of the people who had been expatriated, and to the finances and government of the Colonies now under our rule. At home we have been brought face to face with a severe financial depression, consequent on the depletion of national resources which always follows a war.
