Excerpt from The Western Reserve Historical Society: Issued January 1920; The Western Reserve and the Fugitive Slave Law; A Prelude to the Civil War

Witnesseth, That we, the undersigned, all of whom are citizens of the State of Ohio, desiring to form a corporation not for profit, under the general corporation laws of said State, do hereby certify: First. The name of said corporation shall be The Western Reserve Historical Society. Second. Said corporation shall be located and its principle business transacted at the City of Cleveland, in Cuyahoga County Ohio. Third. The purpose for which said corporation is formed is not profit, but is to discover, collect and preserve whatever relates to the history, biography, genealogy, and antiquities of Ohio and the West; and of the people dwelling therein, including the physical history and condition of the State; to maintain a museum and library, and to extend knowledge upon the subjects mentioned, by literary meetings, by publication and by other proper means. In Witness Whereof, We have hereunto set our hands, this seventh day of March, A. D., 1892.
