

ZBT Battle Field Series:The History Changing War(Chinese Edition)

In early 1453, the Ottoman Turkish Sultan Mehmed II led 170,000 infantry, 320 ships, surrounded Constantinople from both sides of the land and sea in an attempt to completely demise of the Byzantine Empire. Byzantine Empire, had left the only land Constantinople which is the ancient capital city, soldiers and civilians desperately took the oath of die with the city. On April 12th 1453, the Turks firstly launched onslaught from the west, while defeated due to the desperate resistance of the defenders and suffered heavy casualties, a rising war weariness appeared, and formed the opposition led by the prime minister Khalil. They advocate withdrawing with an excuse of coming western reinforcements, but they failed to persuade Mohammed II. When they appeared at disadvantage in the war, the Turks won by surprise tactics, they layed an onshore boat slot in the the north of Galatians, and able to erect batterys, then gave the desperate military eastern Roman Empire a fatal attack. On May 29, 1453 is when the fall of Constantinople, the last emperor of the Eastern Roman Empire Constantine eleven died at his post, at that night the Turks occupied the city of Constantinople. The Turks looted ancient art treasures burned magnificent buildings in the city. The fall of Constantinople indicates the end of the Eastern Roman Empire which lasted for a thousand years. Subsequently, Turkey Constantinople was renamed Istanbul.
